Song 4 Hear My Prayer

Psalm 102 – Prayer of the afflicted. The psalmist pours out his pain (days like smoke, bones burning, heart withered) and contrasts it with God's eternal nature and faithfulness to His people.

Will You hear my prayer, O Lord?
Will my cry reach Your ears?
In my trouble will You hide Your face?
Will You turn away from my tears?

My days vanish like smoke, my bones burn like fire,
My heart is cut down like grass, I forget to eat in my dire.

You will arise and have mercy, the time of favor has come,
You will hear my prayer and answer from Your holy home.

I am like a pelican in the wilderness, an owl in ruined places,
I watch alone like a sparrow on the housetop in lonely spaces.

My enemies reproach me, the madmen curse my name,
I eat ashes for bread, my drink is mingled with tears of shame.

But You, O Lord, remain forever, Your years have no end,
You laid the foundation of earth, the heavens are the work of Your hand.

Therefore we worship You, we gather to praise Your name,
We will sing and give thanks, forever Your glory proclaim.
